

DOMINIC FRISBY

Dominic Frisby does a number of different things ...

A comedian ... 'Viciously funny and inventive,' The Guardian; 'Masterful,' Evening Standard; 'Great comedy talent,' Chortle. He is resident MC at London's oldest comedy venue, Downstairs At The King's Head, and has performed many full-length shows - both straight stand-up and character comedy.

An actor ... in 2011 Dominic appeared in The In-Betweeners Movie and played the lead role in a new Irish drama about the life of political revolutionary, Erskine Childers. He also shot a comedy pilot, Frisby's Greatest Ever, in which he performed 9 different roles.

A TV presenter ... Dominic presented Sky Comedy Close-Up, a movie review show on Sky Comedy. He has also MCd boxing events for Hayemaker Boxing.

A voiceover ... Day-to-day Dominic can be found trotting about the sound studios of London. He is one of the most prolific v-os in the UK, voicing many documentaries, ads, promos, trailers, cartoons and so on.

A writer-producer ... Dominic has written and produced numerous short-films, pilots and silly videos. His most recent production is an animated fairy story called, The Firm, which is now being developed with Henry Normal of Babycow.

A financial guru ... Dominic writes a column for Moneyweek Magazine about gold and other financial matters. He has a big following. He also hosts a podcast on the same subject. He predicted the financial crisis and the rise in gold long before it began in 2008.
